Apprehension of military deserters.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to Defence Department letter No.8321/12/A.G.8(b)dated the 11th July 1942, on the above subject, and to say that a number of reports have been received which indicate that the Police authorities are finding difficulty in furnishing the necessary apprehension or surrender certificate. This difficulty would probably be overcome if every police station were furnished with a stock of the necessary forms, so that the certificate could be completed as far as possible and signed by the Police Officer in charge of the Police station at the time when the deserter surrenders himself at, or is arrested and brought in to the police station.

2. The furnishing of stocks of forms to all Police stations would however involve considerable amount of trouble and probable waste of relatively large stocks of paper. As an alternative, the Government of India suggest that all Police Stations should be furnished with a proforma of the Certificate (I.A.F.D. 910 - copy enclosed) and that instructions be issued by the Police authorities that whenever a deserter surrenders himself or is apprehended, the police officer in charge of the Police station at the time should forthwith prepare the necessary form in manuscript on plain paper, copied from the proforma.

The manuscript form should be signed and should thereafter accompany the deserter whenever he is moved to fresh custody. It should finally be handed over to the N.C.O. in charge of the military escort detailed to take over the deserter from the civil authorities.

3. I am accordingly to request that if the Provincial Government agree to the above alternative Local Administration suggestion necessary instructions may be issued as soon as possible
